Monette and famioly, Deepest sympathy on the loss of your dad and husband. A father's role in the family to set an example on how to live and enjoy one's talent and skills can go a long way in leaving a legacy of memories and perpetuation of culture. May the love and dedication of Moses Aweau be always radiated by those he has left behind. Love, Wendy and Dean Horikami

My deepest sympathy to Annette and family. Moses was loved by all. He was a super nice guy, always smiling and willing to share his knowledge of line dancing with the whole community. He taught me so much - I will surely miss him. With much aloha- Laura Oba
