Hi Mom, today is your anniversary July 5, 2013. I'm sad but I know that you are with the father. You are watching dad and all your Ohana. I do miss you everyday of my life. I just miss calling you on the phone and telling you what's going on in my life and my spiritual walk with the lord. You encouraged me all the time and I also encouraged you when you were feeling low. I thank the lord for you everyday and the time he gave to me to enjoy and love you for 85 yrs. It's not easy not having a mother now I text day everyday just to make sure he is okay and I know that it's hard for him not having you around. I love you, miss you and pray one day I will see you again. Roger doesn't know what to do for me when I miss you and start crying. We both miss you mom and I know that you will never have to hurt in your flesh like you did here on earth..keep praying for your family we all need your interceding like you did when you were here. I love you so much..;-)

October 26, 2013 @ 0:939amits been awhile since I Opened this memorial site of you Mom, I thought I was strong but I was'nt. I'm at work with tears in my spirit no one can take away our special bonds and secrets in the spirit shared with each other. I know that you were aware of what's going on. but now you have no pain., but now we do carry the pain in our hearts. you are still that impression in my soul. all the sibblings and family miss your positive words and the faith that you so strongly believed in. I miss not hearing your joy in all the words spoken by you mom. Why you mom as I cry out Why couldn't there be that healing that actually would manifest when prayed for, I know our family has this ministry of healing. Till later Mom you rest. I will miss you for ever when you come knocking I will let you in. Aloha special Deborah a word spoken over you. Love your Daughter Jo-Ann Ewalani

Today is September 29, 2013 it's 9:14 pm LA time. I was sitting here at my computer thinking of you mom and I decided to find Hawaiian Memorial where I can talk to you. Friday night I stayed up late writing in my journal missing you and wanting to call you. It's really hard for me on the weekends because that is when I use to call you to see how you are doing. Mom dad goes to your grave every day and on the days he can't go that's because he is not feeling well. He misses you so much Noe tries to spend the time with him when she is not working. I text him every day checking up on him making sure he is eating and taking his pill's. It's hard for me because you and I had gotten close in the spirit you always gave me the best advise and you encouraged me when I needed spiritual advise. Our long talks on the phone you talking to me about things that we needed to pray about and we rejoiced in knowing that we can talk to each other about the lord and pray for those that god had put on our hearts. Jan misses you she wanted to go with me back to Hawaii but never got the chance to meet you but she felt close to you even if you both had not met. She loved you in the spirit because you were the rock that held her up when she was going through test and trials. My life will never be the same because I don't have you near me to spend the time with anymore. The pain I have in my heart I know that our Lord has the best for you in heaven where you will walk on the side with our king. We all will meet you when the time is right. I cry every day in my heart not letting anyone see me crying I could say I wish you and dad could have spend more time with us but we knew that you and dad could not travel because of your animals. Mother you are a special Mother, spiritual Mother and my best friend a daughter could ask for. God must have needed you on the other side and like I said in the hospital I prayed that we all released you to your Father. I felt a peace when I prayed that giving you to your father. I love you mother and you will always live in my heart I know that you are a dynamic power of a prayer warrior for all your family that was the burden of your heart the Kaneohe church that John spoke and how much of a burden you had for your own family you and I prayed many times on the phone your faith and trust in the lord was so profound in your spirit and we stood together in prayer for your children and grandchildren and you will never stop there. I love you with all my heart and my heart cry's because I'm human I miss you and I want you here with me. I still believe and have faith for the Kaneohe church that was my burden also...Mother thank you for being how you were and I love that Hawaiian name you gave to me last year Puamohala means (blossoming of my spirit) thank you Mother and you are NO KA OI (The Best) Mother a daughter could ever ask for..until we meet again...Aloha Nui Loa Love, Melody Leihulu Puamohala Benito Lee

I know what you thought me, that your spirit will rise because how much you loved the Lord. He took you quiet and gently, that I appreciate so much. Lord let mom work her wonders with you cause I do know she is your faithful warrior. I'm sorry mom for not being there when you needed me. It's hard everyday for me, but I will push forward for you. Mom, One missing in our family.. It's going to be hard mom, I won't be able to call you and tell you how my day was like. Just to hear your voice anymore. I will miss your encouraging words when you knew I needed to hear it, and the wisdom God gave you to help me with in my natural and spirit. What a awesome mother anyone could ask for. Thank you Lord for my precious mom. I think of you everyday and my tears just keep coming. I know you're with our Lord, but I just can't help how the emptiness I will feel without having you here. Remember mom how much you mean to me... My mother and best friend! I'm going to miss our hair cuts together. So funny I saw Kim today in Costco and I just want to cry, cause I know how much you were appreciated of Kim's kindness. I could see how much you blessed her in the spirit. My mother always standing for others so that they may see how much our Lord loves them too. Mom, if I never told you enough I'm so proud of you in every accomplishment you've done in your life. Sorry mom if I didn't say the things that made me cherish you. How much we take for granted in our lives of the precious love we have. Cause if our Lord decides to take our precious gem home, we just have to be thankful mom is walking with you Lord... Please take care of her Lord cause she was your faithful servant. I love you mom everyday, every minute and every second I think of you!

Mom was NO KA OI (the best) mother a daughter could ever ask for. She was an inspiration to me and always there when I needed her and I was there when she needed me. I will miss our talks every weekend and during the week days. Mom would call leaving me a message that she loved me. I will cherish all the times that we talked and how we would shared what the lord was saying to each of us. The lord that was her passion and her first love. she loved the lord so much that all she wanted to do is talk, pray, read and have an intimate relationship with the father and just sharing Gods love with who ever she came in contact with about the lord. Mom would call to see how I was doing and if I don't answer my phone she would leave me a message letting me know that she loved me and was thinking about me and wanted to hear my voice. She always told me that she loved me and I'm going to miss hearing her say that to me. Those that have a mom cherish all the time you have with your parents because you do not know when the lord will take them home. I will miss my mom but I know that she is in my heart. As her daughter I cherished my mother love and her spiritual words of encouragement to me all the time..Love you my precious mother you are miss so much and Roger misses you dearly he loves you as his own mother..Leihulu ;)
