This is for my grandma, grandma I love you with all of my heart and I wish we was there in person for the last of your days but its ok we were there for you for your funeral. The one thing that I remember the most about you was how musically talented you were, I remember you playing your ukulele or playing your auto harp and how nice it sounded when you played those instruments. Grandma I know that your in a better place and I know after paying all that tithing after all those years through the good and bad, that you must be in a mansion :) Grandma, I will always miss and love you. Love always, Frankie-boy a.k.a Robert-boy
