Kelly-Ann Laulani Valentine Costales

MAY 4, 1971 - DEC 11, 2013

Celebrating the life of Kelly-Ann Laulani Valentine Costales. She was born on May 4, 1971 in Honolulu, Hawai`i where she lived until December 11, 2013. Kelly, a Waianae High School graduate, was the only child of Audrey and Charles Swift. She then attended, and graduated from, John Robert Powers Modeling Agency and later graduated from Hair Design School to pursue a career as a hairstylist at Super Cuts and Master Cuts. She was married to Adam Costales. Her daughters are Kelsie-Ann Valentine and Alexis Valentine. Her sisters are Angela Morales, Barbara Jones, Christina and Shauna Valentin; Grandmother Herminia Valentin, uncles, aunties, nieces and nephews. She loved her service dog, Pockets.

Kelly-Ann was a kind-hearted, caring mother and loving daughter to her family. She was a free-spirit who loved life to the fullest. At New Hope Chapel, Kelly was a volunteer greeter. She loved music—she played the violin, clarinet, flute, and piccolo. Her favorite songs were “Through the Years” by Kenny Rogers, and “Moonlight Lady” by Gabby Pahinui. Kelly loved doing crafts, cooking and baking, and sharing with everyone. If Kelly-Ann were here, she would say: “I want you to know that I’m still with you. I envisioned the day you are forced to read these words in my absence. My wish would be never to leave you, but that is not the way it was meant to be. My greatest wish is to be there, right now, to comfort you like so many times in the past. May the warmth of my touch be replaced with the warmth of these heartfelt words. I love you all very much. I want you to remember the memories we have shared together, and to celebrate my life.”

Kelli-Ann was the sweetest woman I know. She had such a gentle spirit. I was certainly blessed for knowing her. We met at Flora's as hairstylist. We spent many hours just laughing and playing. She brightened up our workplace with her sense of humor and pleasant personality. She will be missed.

Thank you Kat for sharing. Dealing with the loss is so hard. I know that it will take me a while.....or maybe never to get over losing her. I know that I have to stay strong for Kelsie and Alexis. Thank you for your prayers and kind words. Braddah says that he loves and misses you too. Take care of yourself, okay. Love you uku millions. Aud

Tita I know Kell had been sick for a while and I always thought of her in my prayers. I KNOW WHAT YOU ARE GOING THROUGH AT THIS TIME. I am so sorry for not coming to the services. But I really find it hard to leave home. I don't go very far from home since Charles died, hardly go up-country, though I will go on very, very special occasions. I will keep you, the girls and my Braddah in prayer always. Love you plenty ____ Tita.

Thank you Ms. Bobbi. I truly appreciate your post. Kelly is not suffering anymore, she is with everyone who loves her. Mahalo, Audrey Swift (Kelly's Mother)
