Aloha...we found a bottle on the beach with birthday wishes to Finley. I am thinking this is the Finley by the notes in the bottle. Finley now has a brother Asher and a sister. If you get this message just know that we will add a note to the bottle and send it on its way. I am sure Finley is watching over all of you and that she is in the best place possible! Finley is in all of your hearts and up in the universe...where we will all be one day.

Aloha Ashley and Evan, We have never met, but I have followed the news of your daughter in the news. My mother's heart hurts for you. Finley is beautiful and even God must have cried tears for you as Finley entered his arms. Although this was a very difficult time for you, thank you for sharing Finley with us. I especially wanted to tell you, Ashley, that you are a wonderful example of grace and a steadfast mothers love until the end and beyond. While you could have easily told your story in the media with anger and spite, you chose to focus on Finley and telling the story in such a way that we are remembering the legacy of a bright loving child. May God bless you in the days and years ahead. Darla, a mom from Ewa Beach

My deepest condolences to you, Ashley and Evan, as well as to both your parents and family for the very tragic loss of Finley. I don't know you but was very saddened to read about what happened to Finley. May the Lord take you under his wings and hold on to you and help you make it through these very difficult days. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Johanna Bugarin
