I first met Kainoa when I was going steady with his sister Debbie. Got to know him pretty well, guy with a big heart who loved his sister a lot! Great mother and father also, I really cared for the whole family! Still love Debbie to this day!

Koa Ikaika Makalii posted:

As the child of Peter Kainoa Makalii (Koa Makalii) I loved him even though I didn't see him he meant a lot to me and his death has been really hard for me so thank you to anyone who helped me through that rough time. Some of the best memories with him is playing with cars and other toys as a child I remember laughing with him talking with him and playing with him and I'll never forget it. Other times that I loved was the times he would call to talk to me before bed or after my baseball games to ask how I did, if we won, and to tell me that he loves me and goodnight the little things is what I miss and I wish I could go back in time and see him before he died when I had the chance to but instead I wasn't thinking and rejected the offer...
