All of our days working at Kaiser Moanalua Hospital Ralph was always smiling and saying hello! He was a wonderful loving man, although we didn't get to spend too much time together he married one of my best friends and brought life back into hers after the passing of her previous husband....a great man and my last memory of spending time together was Carolee and Ralph came to Maui and we met in Kihei and watched the sunset together and Tom and Ralph smoked cigars and we all drank some vino and laughed and walked and enjoyed our time together you will be greatly miss R.I.P. Ralph and always watch over your loving family and friends comfort them and we will meet again....aloha and much love Marlene and Tom Noble blessings from Maui!
