Celebrating the Life of Mildred Asato Kim, 91, who passed away on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2014. She was in the loving care of her caregivers Maria, Percy, Gabriel and Rose. She was given the utmost care in her elderly years. She was born on March 2, 1923 in Haiku, Maui to Yeikiyu Asato and Kana Chinen; Mildred was the fourth eldest of nine children. She attended Maui High School, Queen's Hospital School of Nursing and the University of Hawaii.

In 1941, as a probationary student nurse at Queen's Hospital she would experience the realistic events during World War II. She would achieve her goal and graduate with a diploma from the School of Nursing at Queen's. By 1947 she became the head nurse and instructor at The Queen's Medical Center. She earned her bachelor's in nursing from the University of Hawaii in 1950. She married David Kim in 1954 in Honolulu, Hawaii. Thus began her many years as a working spouse, mother, daughter, sister, mentor and friend. She retired in 1977 as Director of Nursing at The Queen's Medical Center. Hollis, Tracy, and Jeff,I am saddened to learn of your mother's passing. I will be out of town and can't attend her services, but please know that I will be thinking of her, as well as your dad and grandmother. I recall as a young boy driving with my mom from Wahiawa to Hawaii Kai to visit your family. During those visits, your mother was always gracious and charming with a great laugh. I'd also tag along to visit with Uncle Philip Ahn whenever he was in town to do a movie or TV show. I'd like to express my deepest sympathy to the three of you and your families. I know you have many fond memories to cherish.Sincerely,Bob Ahn
