I'm so sad to learn of Marty's passing. He was a wonderful friend, a passionate & ethical businessman, and I respected him very much. We sure had some good laughs when we talked story about our home inspection adventures on Oahu. I can still hear him: "Oh God, not another crawler!" (He kinda hated going under houses). I'm sure wherever he is now he's studying things and making recommendations. Even Heaven needs a few GFCI's. To his family, my heart goes out to you and I am sorry for your loss. Respectfully, Wayne Blackburn "Inspector Homes"
