Auntie Pating, as we commonly called her is a close relative of mine. She is a first cousin of my father, the late Adriano Coloma Gamatero. Her mother Candida Gamatero is one of the sisters of my late grandfather Donato Gamatero. Coincidentally, she was married to a second cousin of my mother "Facunda Tacub Quibuyen", Uncle Claudio Mendoza Quibuyen. Since my childhood, even though her family lives in Manila, I've known auntie Pating and her family already. I remember one time; Uncle Claudio drove us to Caloocan using his 8 seater jeepney, the precursor of the modern design of Jeepney nowadays. And so, during my College days in Manila, we frequently visited them in Alegria Street, a five minutes' walk from Lardizabal house of my late uncle Angel Tacub Quibuyen. Her family together with some of her siblings, Uncle Clemente, Andres, Jose, Ben and Auntie Goding are known to me. Every time my family went to Pasuc, when my father was still with us, we usually drop at their ancestral house in Mabusag, the gateway to Pasuc along the national highway. It is regrettable that, since her family left for Hawaii in the 70's I don't have a chance to meet her and the family anymore. At this moment, it's really heartbreaking to learn the death of Auntie Pating and I would like to express our sympathy and condolences to the family and let you know that our thoughts are with you! May you rest in peace auntie!!! Jaime Quibuyen Gamatero

Mama Pating, I'm so sorry that me nor my kids will be able to be in Hawaii when they lay you down to rest with papa. I know you understand why I can't make it, but you know that if I could I would be there just like you was always there for me and my kids. I just hope that I haven't disappointed you..... I remember what you would always tell me every time you saw me and I know I haven't really kept my end of it but I am trying too. OK mama don't be mad at me, just know that I will try much more harder and keep to what you told me. I love you so much and with everything I am Mama Pating. It's so hard for me to let you go, I wasn't ready to say goodbye..... Mama I will miss so much. May you rest in paradise..... I love you!
