My dear Aunty Mary, Susan and Family ~ Oct. 8, 2014 Thinking of you in your sorrow and wishing you comfort in the lost of your dear husband, Dad, and my dear Uncle Ron. May the good Lord's enduring love, the comfort of family and the sympathy of caring friends give you peace, hope and strength through this sorrowful time. My prayers and loving thoughts are with you today and always. My special memory of my Uncle Ron was upon our first meeting. At a very young age, I met my Uncle Ron upon your return to Hawaii. Standing directly in front of him at a gathering at Uncle Tom and Aunty Grace's home in Kapahulu (always our favorite and happy gathering place for the family on any occasion.) I had to look waaaaay up at this unusually tall, Asian gentlemen, probably about 6 feet tall, very charming and soo handsome, too!!! I was in awe and in "love" and admiration. I was soo happy for my Aunty Mary, here was her prince charming and the Love of Her Life. I will miss you, Uncle Ron. My prayers will always hold you close to God. My thoughts will always hold you close to me. A hui hou kakou, Me ke Aloha, Uncle Ron. Until we meet again, we love you, Uncle Ron.
