Every year around Mothers Day I think back to the time Kimo took my mother and me to the lavish buffet at the Halekulani Hotel. It fills my heart with warmth and love. And so, this year I decided to Google his name and was saddened to read about his passing. I worked with him at the post office and he was a good kind friend who helped me through some tough times. I lost touch a couple of years after I moved but think of him often. My prayers and thoughts are with his family and friends.
