Arthur Kluvo posted:

Ted & Cissy have been neighbors since I moved to Cathedral Point in 1990. I'll always remember Ted as a feisty guy that always spoke his mind. Fortunately his wife Cissy would normally be there to smooth over any harsh words that might have been said. What really amazed me about Ted is his resilience and dedication. Ted was very spry for his age and looked years younger than his age. After his wife Cissy went into a care facility Ted would visit her every day even after he couldn't drive anymore. He would use the Handivan for transportation. He was very dedicated to Cissy. Ted will be remembered in my thoughts as someone who stood up for his beliefs. Respectfully, Art Kluvo, Cathedral Point board member
