Debbie Immel Souter posted:

I was saddened to read about her passing. Reme was like a Mother to me. I worked with her at HHV and she was always giving me advice. I was just 21 when I moved to Hawaii from a farm in Ohio. I lived there for only 2 and a half years but made friends for life. We continued to send each other presents, birthday and Christmas cards through the years. I will continue to cherish the memories. With deepest sympathy to the family. Debbie Immel Souter
