Elizabeth Etsuko Takahashi

JUN 29, 1930 - NOV 29, 2015

Elizabeth Etsuko Takahashi, 85, of Honolulu, Hawaii passed away on Sunday, November 29, 2015 at Straub Hospital in Honolulu. She was born on June 29, 1930 in Honolulu, Hawaii to Shichiro Yamaguchi and Shizuko Nakahara. She was the oldest of three children.

She attended Kuhio Elementary, Stevenson Intermediate, and Roosevelt High School. After graduating from Roosevelt High School she furthered her education with attending the University of Hawaii at Manoa, where she earned a teaching degree. After she graduated from the University she began her career as an elementary school teacher at Maemae Elementary then moved on to teach at Manoa Elementary School where later she retired in 1983 after serving 31 years.

She lived in Honolulu and was married to Ernest Takahashi on August 20, 1954 at Church of the Crossroads.

She enjoyed traveling and one of her favorite places to go was Las Vegas. Elizabeth was a resilient, caring, and determined woman. She will be truly missed.

Elizabeth is survived by son, Mark Takahashi; daughter, JoAnn Alama; brother, Albert Yamaguchi and two grandchildren.

Hi Mark and JoAnn, This is Richard Vierra from the house below on St. Louis Dr. I just saw your mom's obituary today and I am so sorry. I still remember you both as well as your mom and dad, and didn't know he passed too. My mom lives next door to us in Laie, and I've been here for about 16 years now. I get up to the house about once a month to do cleaning and always start in the back yard. When I'm there, I always look up at your guys house and remember the good 'ol days when we used to all play together. The Pachecos, Grossis, Fishers and Onos are all gone too but being there always brings back good memories. JoAnn, someone told me that you married my classmate, Bernhart (sp?) Alama. If so, please tell him hi for me. Anyways, I wanted to let you both know how sorry I am that your mom passed, and to know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. Drop me a line if you get this and if you want: vierrar@hawaiireserve.com. Until then, take care and God Bless. Richard
