Angeline May Serikaku

JAN 1, 1930 - JAN 20, 2016

Angeline May Serikaku, 86, of Waipahu, Hawaii passed away on Wednesday, January 20, 2016 peacefully at her home. She was born on January 1, 1930 in Honolulu, Hawaii to Manuel Farias and Virginia Gomes. She was a homemaker.

With Angeline, no matter what anyone would say, she was “always right”. This is what made her who she was, a “very strong lady”. She so loved being around and spending time with her grandchildren and going to the beach.

She is survived by her sons, Mathew Cabral and David Serikaku; daughters, Donna Kahakelii and Gordean Serikaku; brothers, George Farias and John Farias; 10 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren and three great, great-grandchildren.

Aloha Matthew Cabral, David Serikaku, Donna Kahakelii, Gordean Serikaku, George Farias, and Jackie Farias: My warmest condolences am very sad for your loss. Angeline was a good friend but I lost contact with her after she married her husband Gordon. Sorry I am unable to attend her services as I no longer drive anymore. I would love to talk with one of you, who may remember me as Roberta Quintal (Ditchen), and later as Sanchez. Back then I lived in Kapahulu not far from your mom's house, Ann as I called her was still a Cabral then. I would love to send a monetary gift to whomever in the family is taking care of her burial arrangements, to put flowers on her grave, or whatever you feel should be done. As we grew up from teenagers to wives and mothers, she was the best friend I had at that time of my life. Please call me at 531-5298. I am now a widow and also remarried after Sanchez and I currently live in the Liliha area. With warmest regards, Roberta E. Gardner

They say that Angels are only present in Heaven but Aunty "Sister" seemed to be one of God's few exceptions to this belief. Through all the years she blessed us with her warm reassuring smiles and calmness that not only physically brought us together but connected our hearts everytime we were together as a family. Where the light shines she will always be there to guide us through all she did through the years.

Yes Christine and I are planning on being there. Those who have touched my heart through all my years are respected by my Loving wife. She knows that how you are molded from childhood to days of today is important to those like her who enter our lives later but are thankful for people like your Mom. Always In our hearts but reflected everyday in how we live
