Papang, its getting closer on your 1month death anniversary and i still could not believe that your gone..i really miss you every single day especially when i come home from work your always on your favorite spot in the living room with your ipad, phone and alcohol (funtador). Now i dont see those anymore because you left us too soon papang. Also i missed the way you call russell asking to give you the remote as an excuse just to get him by you. I love you and miss you so much papang 😞

I remembered happy times and the funny things you do. I think of you and cry. Still asking God Why. I may not understand right now coz I'm still in a deep pain. But I still thank the good lord for the time I had with you. Goodbye for now manung Ko. I know you still with us everyday unseen unheard but always near. Continue to communicate with us in our dream . Ibagam no ania kayat mo.i know you visit me the other night you hold my hand next thing i remember kumukuha daw tayo ng pagkain . We missed you you're forever loved. Rest in peace kabsat . Please pray for us guide us and protect us as you always do . I love you.

I'm fortunate to call you my brother. You defined brotherhood in its truest meaning.A brother who I was able to count on during times of need and want.Days gone by since you peacefully and suddenly left.Yet my heart finds no solace when I think of you.The pain so sharp... it's like going through many indescribable stabs.Manung ko, thank you for being the brother you were to me and all that you were to those lives you touched.When God called you, you were "in my care" That only tells me, God best planned it that way.You are sorely missed!With all my heart, I pray for your eternal rest.
