Aloha, I posted yesterday, but it's not here Mrs. Buted sewed for my grandmother, Mrs. Flateau for many many years. In fact, she sewed several items for me and they were beautifully made. I went to her home on Kamehameha !V Rd many times. She was a very kind person. Aloha to all.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Buted. I just happened across her obit while looking for another. What a strange coincidence. I remember this wonderful lady and precision seamstress from the late 70s...she custom-made costumes for us, never requiring a pattern and always turning out professional theatrical garments of the highest quality. She would always giggle when we came to her with our wacky ideas and though always busy with weddings and proms, her specialty, she still made time to squeeze us in. She was a very talented and gracious lady.

Aloha Diane,I am Jeremy, one of her grandsons. My family wants to thank you for your kind words and loving memories. That was her....always busy yet always making time. She made time for her clients and for her family. She never complained or got angry. She was an outstanding woman of the highest caliber. We're sorry we did not see this posting sooner and my mother is still trying to put a face to your name from the late 70s. However, we have seen many kind and satisfied clients come over. You have been so kind to our Grandmother as well.We thank you again for sharing your aloha and we hope we can meet you! Please come by some time.Aloha and God bless,Jeremy and Family

Mrs. Buted sewed for my grandmother, Elizabeth Fleteau, for many years. I think she also sewed for my aunties, too. She sewed several items that were for me, and altered clothes for us. It's funny that my grandmother was so much older but always called her Mrs. Buted. My grandmother has been gone for 15 years. She had a deep respect for Mrs. Buted, and so do we all. Aloha on behalf of our family.

Aloha Robin Makapagal, I am Jeremy, one of her grandsons. It means so much to hear your kind words about Grandma. We're sorry we did not see this posting sooner. My mother is trying to put a face to the name. However, we were so blessed to have her in our lives. Ever dress that she wore was not store bought but sown by her own hand. In fact, she had even sown and prepared her burial dress a couple of decades ago. All her grandchildren have clothes and blankets made by her loving hands. She will be deeply missed. We thank you again for your aloha and memories. We hope we can meet you and come by some time. Mahalo, Jeremy and Family
