My friend Alan, I'll miss riding my bike over to your house, our conversations filled with laughter, cocktails at sunset and dancing music at our feet. Thank you for always being there for me over the years. You will be in my heart forever. Until we meet again keep showing me those beautiful rainbows and gorgeous sunrises to remember our memories. Alan was a consummate professional. He breathed life into the Hawaii National Guard and touched the hearts of many. As a Chief and additional duty First Sergeant, he knew how to "get things done"! I will miss his laughter and fun-loving spirit. We worked together at the HING Joint Forces Headquarters and had many spirited discussions. Alan was a colleague, an American Airman and more importantly...my friend. Rest in peace Alan. Blessings and prayers to the Bergeson family.
