My thoughts and prayers to Kamaile's ohana. I will always remember her smiles, laughter, and green machine spirit. She made high school fun, and her sense of humor would remind everyone not to take themselves too seriously! Rest in Peace. Aloha, Natalie Wise-Aguilar (Class of '82)

Aloha to Kamaile's 'ohana! I would like to extend my sorrow for the loss of Kamaile I feel like her infectious smile and mischievous giggle (all innocent) and her dedication to all that she put before her, will forever stay with me - in my heart, and in yours. Worked beside her at Na Loio, so long ago, yet, it seems like only yesterday. ALOHA to my Pauahi 'Ali'i Sister (class of '80) - and, here's hoping Elvis is serenading you all the time! In Love, in 'Akua, and in Light - a hui hou, aloha! Ku'umomi Ho.

Kamaile loved holidays (did not having her photo taken). This from a group shot at Na Loio reminds of how giving she was to everyone. So the Santa look is appropriate. You are sorely missed, forever. --Nancy
