Lemuel Nakuilauhulu Kawai Aweau

JAN 31, 1939 - SEP 21, 2016

Lemuel (Lem) Nakuilauhulu Kawai Aweau, 77, of Kaneohe passed away on September 21, 2016 with his wife, Arcenia (Anna) of 54 years by his side.

Along with his Anna, Lem is survived by his two brothers, James Kawai, III and Vaughn Kawai; two sons, Nathan (Donna) Aweau and Lemuel Alaka'i (Tami) Aweau; three daughters, Leanna Aweau, Grace (Patrick) Torres and Judy (Norman) Valencia; 10 grandchildren, and 1 great-granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James Kawai, Jr & Grace Tong Kawai; brothers, Beldon Kawai, Jonathan Kawai and Leighton Kawai; and sisters, Maydelle Torres, Charming McDonald and Blossom Atkins.

Lem is a graduate of the Kamehameha Schools ('57) and the University of Hawaii at Manoa where he received his Bachelor's in Education (Music) and Master's in Education (Administration). Prior to completing his college education, Lem served in the U. S. Air Force and the Hawaii Air National Guard.

Lem's love for God, family and music was evident in his everyday life. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle and friend who always put others first, before himself. As a gifted musician, he not only sang and played countless instruments, he also composed, conducted and taught music, as seen in his children, grandchildren and the many students that called him teacher from Kaiser and Farrington High School. Many would say that he taught "life" through the arts by using the gift of music to find the very best in a person.

Prior to retirement, his final years in education were spent as Vice Principal in schools such as Aiea, Campbell, Roosevelt High and McKinley Community School for Adults, but Lem never stopped doing what he loved most, playing music. He performed for numerous shows at the Halekulani, Royal Hawaiian, Hilton Hawaiian Village and Kahala Hilton and served as music director at Kalihi Baptist Church. Music...his gift, his love, his contribution to our community...his legacy.

We are so sorry we missed his services yesterday. Our deepest sympathy to the ohana. Mom and dad talked about going to the services but mom has suffered a mild stroke and hematoma in the brain. With God's will, hopefully she can come home this Thursday. Our love and prayers to all of you. God bless, The Kula Ohana

My most deepest condolences in the passing of Mr. Lem Aweau. He was my favorite teacher in all my years of High School. He was also a great mentor to me; He always encouraged me to raise the bar, and I did.

Lem taught me to play the guitar. More than that, he was an example of a really nice guy, always gracious and soft spoken. I feel privileged to say I knew a small part of him.

I was truly blessed and honored to know Lem as a friend and coworker at McKinley CSA before his retirement. He was a professional who also brought laughter and music into our lives. Lem was a gentleman with a heart of Aloha. His loving spirit will always be with me, and I can confidently say with all who had the blessed privilege to know him. His presence filled our lives with the light of Christ. Aloha for now Lem.

I have such fond memories of Mr. Aweau. In 1977, I was in my junior year at Farrington High School and had the opportunity to audition for Mr. Aweau and was accepted into the Select Choir. He also saw that I had the potential to be a part of the elite Honolulu Youth Choir, a choir made up of select individuals from high schools from all over Hawaii. It is because of him that my journey as a singer continues even today. He was kind and was an excellent teacher of music. He had a passion to teach high school students in becoming better singers. He will truly be missed. God bless you Mr. Aweau! You are now a part of the heavenly choir and you are now singing with angels.

OMG I'm so sad to hear of his passing. Mr. Aweau came to mind as he has in the past 37 years since I graduated from Farrington (in 1979). I was checking to see if he was still with us & found this. I send my condolences to his beautiful wife & family. I remember him as a wonderful music teacher who was very encouraging with a tenderness. He left a mark on my life. It was special to spend time with him and classmates preparing for performances. In my senior year he told me that I should pursue music (soloist in his select choir). I thought about it a lot but life took me into another path (health care). I wish I met up with you again...someday I'll join you worshipping our Heavenly Father & Jesus with psalms, hymns, & spiritual songs making beautiful music unto our God. I'll always remember & cherish my memories of you.

Memories only last if you share them
