Hawai'i has lost a true Son as my brother lived exclusively for these islands and all that being Hawaiian meant. he kept track of so many people, things and events that involved their heart and participation in life there. Being his sister of course I have many, many memories of our childhood in Kailua and how he even fed us when we were young with his nickels he brought home from selling newspapers. In his last moments he turned to our Dad whose ashes were scattered at Kaneohe Bay and where he actually transitioned from earth. I saw my dad reach down for him when at that moment his heart gave out. He loved you all, and gave of himself that wasn't recorded anywhere except in the deep of heart for those who knew that of him. Holding you in my heart, Kaueahu, with love, gratitude we were together this lifetime and looking forward of 'more to come' when we meet again...Your Sister, Lei

I lifeguarded Lloyd regularly at Kailua Pool--he was so encouraging & supportive of me! Come 2 find out he also worked w/my dad @ HPD! He said my dad was a better man than he! Don't know how that's possible, because Lloyd was loved & appreciated by ALL!!! He even brought me banana & mango bread occasionally! We have lost an old soul & heaven has gained an angel! The pool won't B the same w/out him! Upon my return from a 2-wk vacation, I was given the news of his passing by my seniors who knew we were close! I cried!!! He will be missed by all, but most certainly by me! Love & Aloha, brother Lloyd!!!

Brother Faulkner was my Lieutenant in HPD, he was the most kindest and fairest person I have ever met. A real down to earth person and a great police officer.
