Manong Rico was my mentor. We used to go fishing together almost every weekend and he taught me many things like how to drive, but most of all he taught me the value of hard work and how to be a good friend. I will cherish the memory of him for the rest of my life.

My dad was my personal Chauffer- bringing me everywhere I wanted to go- without complaints. He even drove me and my boyfriend to the movies at Pearl ridge and picked us up after the movies... that's why I was in my 20s by the time I got my drivers liscence - I'm such a DIVA 😊
