Aloha Uncle.This is me, Stacie Kapaku. What I remember most about you. I remember seeing through my childhood eyes a Strong Man, Husband, Father, Grandfather who would wake up every morning going to work and hitting those pavements, literally speaking, lol. To provide for your family. As children hanging out at your house practically everyday with Anela, Kahea and Holly too. You would come home Red eyes, oily, hair sleek with pomade..lol Tired.. But, was always calm when you spoke too us (friends). But, with that calmness, your kids knew the law of your house and not dare to push it. Thank you for feeding me when I was hungry. Thank you for letting me sleep when I was tired. Thank you so much for loving me like your own.I will always Love you All and I'm grateful to you all as well. Aunty Jackie, Uncle Enos, Ipo, Kapalani, Nohea,Kahea, Anela and Holly AKAOWith Much Love and Aloha, Stacielee Kapaku-Souza "Uts"3rd Road....🙏
