I remember dancing with James at Carville. He had all the international doctors moved to tears as he so simply and eloquently shared his life wisdom and heartache.He gave me a beautiful feather headband which I have kept all these years. If a family member would contact me at helenbetsy1@outlook.com I would be glad to return this to Jame,s family. It is something special. I met him once, and have never forgotten him.Helen R.

I love & miss you dad. Woke up this morning crying because I was dreaming of you and you was alive and well. But I was sad in my dream because you was leaving moving off island. But it was so nice to see you just the way I remembered you. I love you so much my heart is sore!!!!
