Masakatsu Yoshizumi

DEC 30, 1922 - DEC 23, 2018

After a long brave battle this past year, “Masa”, “Larry” Masakatsu Yoshizumi passed away at the age of 95.

Masa is survived by his 3 children – Laurie, Galen, and Paul. His wife Barbara and son Randy preceded him in death. Masa has 4 grandchildren and 5 greatgrandchildren.

Dad loved to watch baseball and Japanese programs on TV. He would take the city bus to Honolulu China Town and frequently went to his favorite coffee shop to meet his long-time friends to “talk story” and was a member of China Town Senior Citizen Center.

Masa had a life time career in the commercial house painting industry and he painted many relatives’ homes here in Hawaii.

Larry and Barbara were life time members of the Kailua Seventh Day Adventist Church and much of their life together was centered around their family and the church; its activities and the close friends they had there.

Donation may be made in memory of Masakatsu Yoshizumi to Adventist Health, Castle Memorial, 640 Ulukahiki St., Kailua, HI 96734

Uncle Larry was a special uncle. When Sarah and I were small, we went to Kailua often to visit the Yoshizumi family. Back then it was no small feat to make the drive along a winding narrow road. Since my Dad's four brothers all left for the mainland, Uncle Larry became like a brother. They went to see the Islanders play and other sporting events at Aloha Stadium. My dad was good at working around the house. But, when it came time to re-paint, he always got Uncle to work along side. Uncle Larry was quiet and soft-spoken. I don't recall him ever saying an unkind word. And, that, I think is why I liked him so much.
