We are sorry that we are late on the tribute as we only learned of Vincent's passing two days ago (04/07/2020) Our family dearly loved Vincent Jr. and he will be greatly missed. My dad, Vincent Harvey, said he always thought of Vince as his little brother as they were very close. Since learning of his passing, we have been sharing many stories of Vincent beginning with his younger days. I'm glad my dad at 92 years can still remember the good old days with Vincent. Although it seems like just a few years back, (it's probably more like ten or more) when we were visiting with Vince and Anita and the family over lunch in Creston. I'm glad we have those good memories! We will miss you Vincent and we will always remember you with much love! Love, Kay & Keith Acheson, Vince Harvey and Nancy Harvey
