Isaiah Cyrus Carbonero-Caday

SEP 29, 1998 - JUN 26, 2019

Edison and Glenda welcomed their son, Isaiah Cyrus Carbonero-Caday was born at Kapiolani hospital 7:37 a.m. on September 29, 1998 at a whopping 9lbs.

Isaiah attended Kalihi, Kapalama, Kalakaua, Kapolei middle and Kapolei high schools. He was loved by his peers and was popular in that regard.

Later, Isaiah continued his education at LLC and with the intention of obtaining a bachelor degree with his newfound love of business management at UH West. He was scheduled to graduate in 2020.

Isaiah was mature beyond his years. At 17, he decided to become an organ donor. In the living life, he meant so much to everyone who knew and met him. He saved 2 lives locally by being a kidney donor.

In addition, you all know his love for cats but for all animals. We still have our babies at home and will truly miss Isaiah spoiling them. He was promoted to supervisor at an early age at his first employment, Thinker Toys where he was loved.

Isaiah was Glenda and Edison's only child. He was a beloved son, grandson, great grandson, nephew, cousin, boyfriend, and a best friend to many.

Zay, Thank you for the beautiful memories! When I think of you, I always will remember that happy, fun, and energetic boy that I love and adore!!! You gave me so much happiness and even brought out the kid in me! I miss you so much!!!

I will always cherish you and our fun memories together. You weren't just my nephew but my hanai son! I will hold on to the memories of you....forever! Please rest now and be at peace! I want you to be happy wherever you are. Even though you have taken a part of my heart, I still have you. I will always hold on to you!!! I love you forever, Zay!!! Forever!
