Though, I met Maggie only once or twice a long time ago she really projected love and life that is so warm and wonderful. I had an opportunity a couple of weeks ago to visit with her and I am so happy that I did. Though, she couldn't communicate with me in words but her presence was obvious. She had many friends that visited her and you could see how she influenced them to better. My prayers are with Maggie and family with friends that we might no longer hear her but in our hearts we'll always feel that she made a difference in our lives and continues. Maggie was my first roommate in 1965 at Utah State University. She was so kind and thoughtful. I haven't heard anything of her for all those years and truly wish I had known her whereabouts sooner than after her passing. I'd like her family to know she made a wonderful impression on a frightened new student at USU so many years ago.

Maggie was a joy to have met and known at early morning exercise. Warm and thoughtful, so very lovely...she will be missed...her aloha remains. My condolences and aloha to family and friends. Cheryl W.
