My Aunt Kathy was more like a sister to me than a Aunt. We became good friends as I got older. I called her with my worries and fears and she always made me feel better. Or just 2talk2. She was a humble, prideful, kind. A very kind thoughtful soul. I look around my home and every room has something she either made for me or gifted me. I lost a very important part of my life the day she left us. Rest in peace in that beautiful garden my beautiful Aunt.

Kathy and I we're friends 👯 for over 50 years. When we were kids and teenagers we did and had wonderful times. Even though we weren't together in later years we never lost touch. She was my best friend forever. We always ended our conversations with, " I love you like a sis"! So today my heart goes out to her children and grandsons. I am here for you girls. God Bless you all. Love, Theresa
