Jennifer Myyah Marciano

SEP 17, 1965 - JAN 13, 2020

Myyah, a.k.a. Jennifer Marciano, 54, passed peacefully in her sleep on January 13th., 2020 leaving behind her life partner Blu Alualu, (Who she loved and respected so dearly), Her Son Auryan Riley, Daughter Christina Fournier, her grand- daughter's, Helena and Althea and Brother Jared LaDell.

Myyah, Was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico to the parents of James LaDell and Dawn D. Woodward LaDell.

At the young age of 12 Myyah, decided she was going to come to California, exploring everything and anything possible along the way. She always had a smile on her face, always leading her brother and cousins, keeping them out of trouble but always an adventure.

By the time she was 30 years of age, Myyah , had traveled to many different countries spreading love and understanding of life to all she came across and after a while Myyah , decided she was going to spend the rest of her life in Hawaii.

It was always with great love, pride and excitement when Myyah, spoke about her children and grandchildren, with her eyes becoming wide and filled with so much excitement and by the time she was finished you would have a perfect picture of their beauty.

Myyah , is naturally artistic and extremely knowledgeable about many subjects, inheriting her artistic abilities and talent from both parents.

Myyah, being very spiritual and gifted was always guiding others towards a more positive direction in their life, helping them with finding a better future.

Her soul and spirit was so big filled with so much love and kindness always wanting others' lives to be better, wealthier, healthier, and gifted with God's love.

We all would like to thank Blue, for giving Myyah, this beautiful farewell.

From my heart to hers:

Myyah, may the wind chimes sing every time someone speaks your name, may the song the

I only heard the news today that my angel Jennifer has passed. Jennifer was my soul sister, confidant, advisor and friend. A warrior with a kind heart who was there to help anyone despite her own pain. In my late twenties Jen saved me from despair and in that crucial moment she changed my life path forever. I am forever grateful to her for her love and laughter and will truly miss her spirit. Rest in Peace Jennifer my friend, may you dance with angels. I love you. Thank you for all that you gave.

We love and miss you so much Sis. Zane told me that when we were at your service, he couldn't cry because his heart is broken. Zoey talks about you everyday and is taking good care of the glasses you gave her. Alohalani and I are deeply saddened but we can feel your presence. We will continue where you left off and continue to show love, support, and that special Myyah illuminating care. Love you so much
