Dear Ron and Brian,I'm so sorry to learn about Jean's passing. I didn't know her very well and didn't see her often but she was always friendly and helpful when I saw her at the commissary. She and I understood the frustrations of our jobs and we offered support to each other.With my heartfelt sympathy and prayers.Emily(S & K Sales, Co.)

Mom,I remember the first time you let me make all the pies for the Thanksgiving holiday. I was 17. I made all of them, on my own. Years prior you assisted me. This year you made me feel important, in charge, like an adult and special.You believed in me, you trusted your recipe and the tradition with me. I am forever grateful that you encouraged me to learn how to bake from scratch. That you were my teacher, my guide and my inspiration. Even thou i learned from the master; Food, baking and the holidays will never be the same. As Andi Kim reminded me, you were the glue that kept everyone, everything together. You are deeply missed Mom! I love you! appreciate you! adore you And I am so grateful that you are my mom!Your Loving and Favorite DaughterNiki 🍷🥺
