I only just now heard of Jerryne's passing. I am heartbroken for his Ohana. Jerryne was my husband's first cousin and I recall many fond memories they shared as teens and young adults as told through my husband. I only met him once and remember a man so happy as he celebrated his daughter Summer's first birthday. He was so proud to be her father and urged us to have children because "the feeling is unreal". Also very saddened to read his son Marcus has also passed. May God's great love, grace and peace be with the families. Cathy
