Grandma, Mom, Mama, Lady...these are just a few of the names I called her when we were together. She was the definition of generous, always had her arms outstretched to help anyone at any time. My children were so blessed to have such a loving and caring grandmother who cherished each of them and always supported them throughout their lives. I'm so thankful God placed her in my life as she treated me as one of her own, ALWAYS. I know she is in a better place and that she will remain our guardian angel forever. Fly high, Mama, keep us safe and tell my parents and my sister I love them dearly. Your forever daughter-in-law, Keli'i aka Mrs. Alapai (her nickname for me)
