My husband Richard and I send our deepest condolences to the family of Mr. Daniel Leung. Over many years, we enjoyed conversations and stories when we came in to entrust our tax preparation to him. He was such a nice person and very caring of his family. He will be greatly missed. In sympathy, Alberta Freidus-Flagg

I was deeply saddened to hear the passing of Daniel. He was a caring and gentle soul. My wife (who also passed in April 2021) and I always looked forward to meeting him during tax season. He would tell us stories of gambling in Macau and how beautiful it was there. He truly loved his family and did everything possible to care for his wife who was ill and needed constant care. Daniel never complained caring for her. He worked hard and was always available when I had a question. He was a great man and I miss his presence. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. Rest In Peace Daniel-you earned it!
