I adored Diana. I met her when our husbands were stationed together in the Marine Corps. She was so precious and genuine. I just learned of her passing today and am heartbroken. Greg, if there's anything I can do, please let me know.

First, my sincere condolences go out to the Joseph Family. I first met Diana when she and her family were stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio. Through our conversations we found that we had many similar interests and also found out we were a few weeks apart in age. Throughout the years we would continue to call/text each other to wish the other happy birthday. However one, of my most special memories was when I was directing a song in English and Spanish and asked Diana to join the choir. She graciously accepted and convinced her whole family to join. Diana's presence was such a gift and her memory will be everlasting. Sleep well mi hermana menor until we meet again. Stephanie Richardson

Diana was one of the most genuine people that I have met. She consistently sought ways to serve and lift others. I am grateful for her commitment, kindness, and contributions. She was a key leader in our 'Respect and Dignity Council'... and emulated those attributes.

Mi querida compañera de trabajo, You welcomed us from the first time we arrived to island. En español and english you shared with us your time, family, and house. I loved talking w/ you about latino foods and traditions. Hawaii felt more like home. My family and I were so blessed to have met you and we thank you for making us feel part of your family. Que Dios los brinde paz, en estos momentos dificiles. You and your family are in my prayers. RIP Lady "D"
