My uncle Herbert Yoshimoto had a long and good life but lost many of his peers during that time. I'm sure many of his students at S.W. King remember him because we all had to take his social studies class in intermediate school. To me, my brother and my sister he was "uncle". Not Uncle Herbert, just "uncle" because he was the only uncle we knew growing up. I have many fond memories of him during that time. May he Rest In Peace.

Aloha Jessie! Do you have any pictures of "Uncle" you can post?

I'm sorry to hear of Mr. Yoshimoto's passing. He was one of my teachers at S. W. King Intermediate school back around 1977, I believe. My condolences to his family and loved ones. Martin GrantSkippergrumby@aol.com
