Aloha Mai, to the Ohana of Randy Nahoopii, my name idles Jodi Hopkins and I had the privilege to work with him at Kamehameha schools. At Kalama... we worked together and from the start we bonded... he has so much Aloha we truly was like bradda and Sista...! I used to go his house when he lived Waimalu shopping center above the shops ... and his wife at that time Sheila and the kids ... wow I remember Moani when she was a little girl Always good times and I remember them with so much love ... I still can see him I. His Chevelle that was primer color... that buggah was fast boy... I had the joy of seeing him when he was working for a construction company in Palolo on 10th I live on 9th I was passing and saw him we saw each other and I had to make the U - turn K when he left Kamehameha we didn't have all the phones we get now hello we had like pagers!!! Lol we embraced as if we were Ohana they you haven't seen in like forever that was the last time I saw him ... I have so many stories good stories ... he was always the best bradda ... I never had to worry about anything when he was around !! I still remember his laugh The biggest smile ... not everyone know but he the one helped me to train for the Aloha Rin way back when we went gun every morning on campus .. he was always encouraging I can still hear him "get in dat bike Sista, and go 10 miles..." I be like whaaaaat... and then he laughed !! So much good good times I always believed I would run into him one day ... but now I believe I will see him again he going be there at the gates with that big smile ... love to all his Ohana He will always be remembered with very happy and loving memories!! Please forgive me for. It being able to be there in person for his celebration of life... with the fondest of heartfelt condolences and Aloha Nui Loa, Jodi LOVE YOU BRADDA TILL WE MEET AGAIN
