My aunty Linda. I will always remember the times of coming to Kaneohe and we have those dinners and lunches with all our family around. I really miss those times of having no worry because I was just around you all. Now you can go rest and be with uncle for an eternity. Im really glad I got to see you before you went home. I miss you both greatly. Please give my papa and big hug and kiss for me. I love you all.

My Aunty. I will sincerely miss you and your beautiful smile. I am grateful that I got to see that full smile and tell you that i loved you at our last meet. You can now enjoy eternity with our family who warmly welcomed you home. My daddy must have been right there waiting for you. AND my favorite uncle i know is happy to have his Alohalinda in his arms again. I really wish i could throw a phone up to heaven so we can talk to all of you, i would so pay for the long distance!! But i know you are in a greater place that you can dance, play volleyball and do all the things that you want to do without the restrictions of this world. I will always have memories of you, memories of you and uncle dancing and loving us. Tan - You are appreciated. You have been her right and left hand for some time now and that missing piece of your heart is in heaven loving you and thanking you for your patience, time and comfort. I can see her now, smiling down at you, ty and the babies knowing that you will all be okay and will go on. I love you Aunty, please kiss and hug my daddy for me. I miss him ALOT but I know he's ok. Tell Gma and Gpa i love them too, and please hug my favorite uncle, I miss that silver fox. Aloha and until we meet again, I love you.

My Dearest Mom.... So unexpected, not even 24 hours and you were gone. I miss you so much that it hurts. Who would have known that when I spoke to you that morning would have been the last time. I pray Dad came to get you cuz I know you missed him so much... Now you have been released of things that restricted you. Eternal Love & Life Thank you for being such a Wonderful, Caring and Loving mother, oh and a humorous one. God truly knows how much I miss your presence ... great advice and loving ways... I will miss our trips to Vegas and taking crazy pictures before the plane took off. Now you are able to do all the things you couldnt.. Reunited with those whom missed you while we had you here... Mom I can go on and on pouring out my heart on how much of a wonderful person you were, BUT everyone already knew that.. I have the greatest memories of you from when I was little... and I love every bit of them...I will never stop missing you and the recent times spent with you... From early morning conversations... Watching your favorite " Cooking Hawaiian Style" and all the food they cooked you wanted to eat. I will terribly miss those many hugs in the past few months... Im glad to have told you how much I loved you on every chance I had.... You were LOVED by Many...I love you MOM... Today... Tomorrow and Always.... Love to everyone who gets to enjoy you now.... See you again one day... when its my turn to be in that beautiful place we used to talk about... I MISS YOU MOM

Mahalo Cuz Lisa... It still hurts but I am managing to step forward... it was really hard cuz 4 hours before her passing I spoke to her and she sounded really good and asking me if I was coming now.. Told her no mom I will try and get off earlier though.. she said ok and I told her so I see you later and that i loved her and she said it back... and that would have been the very last time talking to her... I miss her... She was a warrior.. even though I know she was fighting a battle ... she hung on I guess till her very last breath... You still have your mom.... Love her and enjoy your moments with her... we all have no idea as to when it will be our last moment in our physical form... so make the most of it.... Luv ya Tanya.....

To my loving Uncle Frederick and Aunty Linda may you both rest in peace....We all have so many good times in past with my parents at your Makakilo parents home as remember it so well. Just wanna say here my dad Larry Castro has also passed away and never got to say goodbye during his tragic accident. It still feels like yesterday all over again. Never saying goodbye maybe its a good thing but my heart breaks just knowing he was my number one dad forever. I know my dad is always with me Tanya and so is your dad. Your mom's smile lives forever through you cousin as both aunty and uncle raised you and Tyler the best you both could be just like them ❤️. All of us will meet up with our parents and be with them again...We love you both aunty and uncle. May you rest in peace. Love Lisa
