Aloha Lima family!! I'm so sorry to hear of Lionel's passing. I attended Ben Parker Elementary School in Kaneohe with Lionel in the early 1970's. That's a long time ago. Life took us on our separate journeys and I haven't seen Lionel since. I would like to hear from his family to tell me more about him. Please accept my condolences and Aloha. Thank you so much Annalicia! Sounds like Lionel grew up to be a good man, he must have loved you very much. Yes, I grew up in the Kaneohe / Kahalu'u area myself. (I retired from HECO in 2016 and my wife and I moved to Paris, France) The picture you posted of him as a young boy really brings back memories. I remember him as a happy and polite boy, I can't recall him ever being anything else. School was very difficult at that time and place for a lot of Haole kids like me. Relentless bullying, teasing and racial violence from a lot of the other kids. But not from Lionel. His parents raised him right as he was very different from those others. Good to everyone. Happy. He didn't care about color or race. Looking at his picture from our Hanna-badda days brings back some fond memories from a bygone time. Thank you for sharing! Once again, I'm sorry for your loss and I wish I could have kept in touch with him these past 50 years or so. Respectfully, MartinSkippergrumby@aol.com

Aloha Martin mahalo he so loved growing up in Kahuluu he had so many wonderful stories so much fun he had as he would share them so often. He came to live in Ewa Beach in the 80s we got married 1990 then had 3 beautiful babies 7 years apart son Nahoa daughter Annalicia and daughter Arianna then blessed by our son to have 3 more beautiful babies Hezekiah Zephaniah Azurelynn. He enjoyed taking care of the kids he was a magnet for them the family the whole neighborhood always at our house never wanted to go home he was too much fun my job was feeding the mass. So much aloha for sharing with us and you being a part of his happiness.

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Lionel by contributing to a collection of shared memories.
