Dason loved many Ohana, friends, and those in need. He really loved fishing and didn't like pictures unless he had a big one. He was full of patience for others and patience in watching the flag line at South Point. Loved by countless individuals. Love Ha'ole Michael

Thank you for all the good time and joy you went share with me and my braddahs unko Dace. From all times you went take us shooting, camping fishing, so many memories that will forever be apart of my childhood I gon neva forget. When we'd see you smile it always made us feel like we was family and that is something that means more to me than anything I could ever ask for. Your heart and compassion knows no limits and whenever anyone was in need you would be there. I miss and love you unko, thank you for everything. I'm so happy you can rest and have peace now, I can't wait to see you again one day. Much love, Tyler Tyrpak
