Gladyis Kee-Soon Helm

JAN 17, 1929 - MAR 18, 2024

In honored memory of Gladyis Kee-Soon Helm, a beloved soul who graced this world with her presence for 95 remarkable years. Born in Honolulu, Hawaii, she was a beacon of warmth and kindness, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all who knew her.

Gladyis resided in the serene town of Kaneohe, Hawaii, where the gentle whispers of the ocean and the rustling of palm leaves provided solace. Her life was a symphony of love, resilience, and unwavering devotion to family.

Survived by her cherished legacy, Gladyis leaves behind a tapestry of love and memories. Her children, Gordon, JoAnn, Sharon (Leward), and Bradford, carry forward her spirit, weaving her wisdom into the fabric of their lives. Gladyis was not just a mother; she was a guiding star, illuminating their paths through life's twists and turns.

The laughter of her 6 grandchildren echoed in her heart: Stacy, Pang (Tony), Troy, Jason, Keola, and Terry. They were her joy, her pride, and the promise of a brighter tomorrow. Gladyis reveled in their triumphs, celebrated their milestones, and held their dreams close to her heart.

And beyond, in the lineage of love, stood 9 great-grandchildren—a testament to Gladyis's enduring legacy. Their laughter, their innocence, and their boundless curiosity were the threads that wove her story into eternity. And in a rare and precious moment, she even welcomed a great-great-grandchild, a tiny bud of hope and promise.

Gladyis Kee-Soon Helm's journey on this earthly plane may have ended, but her spirit dances among the stars. She taught us that love transcends time, that family is our greatest treasure, and that kindness is a legacy worth passing down.

As we bid farewell to this remarkable woman, let us celebrate her life—a life well-lived, a heart well-loved. May her memory be a fragrant lei, forever adorning the shores of our hearts.
