Reuben Robert Correa

SEP 21, 1963 - APR 22, 2024

Reuben Robert Correa, a beloved father figure, friend, and passionate fireworks enthusiast, passed away on April 22, 2024, in Honolulu, Hawaii. Born on September 21, 1963, in Kailua, Hawaii, Reuben's life was filled with laughter and love.

During the day, he wore his chef's apron, creating culinary magic in a busy local restaurant. But when the sun dipped below the horizon, Reuben's true passion ignited: fireworks. His eyes gleamed brighter than any firework as he crafted dazzling bursts of color and light. Reuben's laughter echoed like crackling fireworks, bringing joy to everyone who knew him.

He wasn't just a brother or an uncle; he was a warm and kind-hearted beacon. Reuben's devoted mother, Rosemarie, stood by his side, her love unwavering. His siblings—Bernard, Barry, Marie, and Roberta—shared in his joys weaving a close-knit family bond. Across generations, his ten nephews and nine nieces carry forward his legacy, a testament to the love he showered upon them.

As we say goodbye to this extraordinary soul, let's remember Reuben's zest for life. His laughter will forever illuminate our hearts, like a grand fireworks finale. Rest in peace, dear Reuben.
