Juan Ramiro Curammeng

OCT 20, 1929 - MAY 1, 2024

Juan Ramiro Curammeng, a beloved husband, father, and pillar of his community, passed away on May 1, 2024, in Ewa Beach, Hawaii. He was 94 years old.

Born on October 20, 1929, in Bacarra, Ilocos Norte, Philippines, Juan lived a life filled with love, compassion, and dedication. His legacy will forever be etched in the hearts of those who knew him.

Juan leaves behind his devoted wife, children, and a wide circle of friends and family. His unwavering commitment to family values and his strong work ethic inspired everyone around him. Whether tending to his garden, sharing stories of his homeland, or participating in community events, Juan's presence was a beacon of warmth and kindness.

The visitation to honor Juan's memory will take place at the Valley of the Temples main chapel on June 17, 2024, at 10:00 AM. A Catholic prayer service will follow at 10:30 AM, and he will be laid to rest during the burial ceremony at 1:00 PM.

As we bid farewell to Juan, we celebrate a life well-lived and cherish the memories that will continue to resonate through generations. May his soul find eternal peace.
