Oriette Afosea Vegas

SEP 22, 1953 - MAY 9, 2024

Oriette Afosea Vegas, a beloved resident of Kaneohe, Hawaii, passed away on May 9, 2024, at the age of 70. Born in Honolulu, Hawaii, on September 22, 1953, Oriette led a remarkable life filled with love, family and adventure.

As a court clerk for the federal government, Oriette's career took her to places she might not have otherwise visited. Her work allowed her to explore new horizons, and she embraced each opportunity with enthusiasm, especially when she got to share with her family. Oriette's passion for organization extended beyond her professional life; she was the heart of her home and kitchen, ensuring that everything ran smoothly for her family.

Oriette shared an unbreakable bond with her husband, Rudolph. They were inseparable companions, their enduring friendship and love were evident to all who knew them. Next month, in June, they would have celebrated their 48th anniversary—a testament to their enduring commitment.

In addition to her husband, Oriette is survived by her daughter, Tiffany, who undoubtedly inherited her mother's culinary skills and kindness. Oriette's siblings—Stanley (Ella), Elizabeth-Arlis (Blaise), Lila, and Kimberly (Catalino)—also mourn her passing. Her legacy lives on through her granddaughter, Briseis, a bright light in the family.

Oriette Afosea Vegas touched the lives of many, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of love. Her warm smile, unwavering support, and zest for life will forever be etched in our hearts. May she rest in peace, surrounded by the beauty of the Hawaiian islands she called home.

Ori was my oldest sister. We were 13 years apart, with 3 other siblings in between. She always took care of me. When I was home sick from school, she took me with her to her classes at University of Hawaii. We would sit in the back of the huge lecture hall and she would make sure I had snacks and my coloring book and crayons to keep me busy. Her classmates thought I was her daughter! Even as we got older, and our hair started to gray (mine more than hers), people STILL mistook me for her daughter! She would look at them with her soft eyes and in a calm even-toned voice, she would tell them "No. She's my YOUNGEST sister. Thank you very much." as we both walked away, rolling our eyes.
