Valley of the Temples Memorial Park and Hawaiian Memorial Park Mortuary are saddened to announce the passing of Reverend William H. Kaina.

Kahu William Hi'iakaikapoliopele Kaina, a beloved spiritual leader and pillar of the Hawaiian community, peacefully transitioned on Father's Day, June 16, 2024, surrounded by his cherished family in Honolulu. He dedicated his life to serving others and nurturing the aloha spirit.

William, to many known as Bill, was born on November 27, 1932 in Ho'okena, Hawaii, and was raised in his father's birthplace in Kalapana. He descended from British Lord George Anson Byron and a Hawaiian Hilo Chiefess, Kaoiwikapuokalani, daughter of Kalaniopu'u.

Bill completed primary school in a two-room schoolhouse in Kalapana, middle school at Hilo Intermediate, and high school at the Kamehameha School for Boys, graduating in 1951. He attended Yankton College and School of Theology in Yankton, South Dakota, graduating with Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Theology degrees in 1956. He served as student pastor at a church in Beemer, Nebraska from 1954-1956.

In 1960, Kahu Kaina attended the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology in Oberlin, Ohio where he served the Sullivan Congregational Church. He completed his graduate studies in theology in 1963 when he was honored with "an outstanding Pastor" award and received a Master of Divinity degree.

In 1963, Kahu Kaina was called back to Hawaii where he served the Lihue Union Church on Kauai from 1963-1969, and then the Moanalua Community Church in Honolulu. In 1971-1980, he

In addition to his ministry, Kahu Kaina manifested his love of the Hawaiian people, culture, language, and music by participating in the Hawaiian Hymnal Committee resulting in the publication of Na Himeni Haipule in 1972-1974 and Na Himeni O Ka Ekalesia from 1999 to 2001. Kahu Kaina continued to contribute to the community at large as a member of over 15 local organizations, including the Bishop Museum Board of Directors, the West Honolulu Rotary Club (David Malo award recipient in 2005), the Liliuokalani Children's Center, various scholarship committees, the Governor's Committee on Economic Development, and Partners in Development.

Kahu Kaina was truly a man of God. Who even after retiring from kawaihao church, he still continues to do Gods work until his passing. Mahalo Ke Akua Kahu Kaina for your expertise in believing in Jesus Christ is the son of God. Our Lord Jesus Christ has open the gates of heaven for you. God Bless Kahu Kaina
