Alipio Barayuga Bonilla

AUG 28, 1937 - JUN 19, 2024

Alipio Barayuga Bonilla, aged 86, passed away in Honolulu, Hawaii, leaving behind a legacy of kindness and hard work. Born in San Nicolas, Ilocos Norte, Philippines, he touched the lives of many with his warm heart and unwavering dedication.

Alipio's work ethic was unmatched. Whether tending to his family or contributing to his community, he approached life with diligence and compassion. His kindness was a beacon, illuminating the path for those fortunate enough to know him.

For 63 years, Alipio shared his life with his beloved wife, Maria. Their enduring love and partnership were an inspiration to all who witnessed it. Alipio's children, Marilyn and Roel, were the pride of his heart. He instilled in them the same values of hard work, love, and generosity that defined his own character. His three grandchildren—blessings he cherished—will carry forward his legacy, guided by the lessons he imparted.

As we bid farewell to Alipio Barayuga Bonilla, we honor the man who touched our lives with grace and goodness. May his memory continue to inspire acts of kindness and love in the hearts of those he leaves behind.
