George Ayau Kam Jr.

JUL 12, 1929 - MAY 27, 2024

George "Fatso " Ayau KAM, Jr. passed away on Monday, May 27, 2024, at the age of 94 years. He was born on July 12, 1929, to the late George & Minnie Kam. His two sisters, Evelyn Liu & Lulu Yee, have also passed; but he is survived by his younger brother, Arthur Roland Kam. On December 9, 1950, he married his beloved Pearl Abigail Thompson.

She passed 20 years ago. He is survived by their two children: son, George Ill (wife, Sharmaine) and daughter, Wenonah-Mae (husband, David Apao); three grandchildren -- Keoki, Kami, and Haunani; and also two great grandchildren-- Kamren & Karli. George attended St. Louis School, worked as a switchman at Hawaiian Telephone Company for 38 years and volunteered 30 years at the Nuuanu YMCA teaching members the art of speed bag boxing. He was born on Oahu, lived in various areas of Kalihi, and only travelled to our other islands for his hobbies. He thoroughly enjoyed various activities: hunting wild game, fishing, snorkeling, kayaking, crabbing, cooking, repairing nets, macrame crafts, etc. His health was generally good, but as the years passed his body and hearing took its toll. I'm so sorry to hear this. I loved him and Auntie Pearly so much. My fondest memory was they had no living room furniture, a ceiling full of hanging plants with macramé hangers he made, and they bought me a haupia cake from Leonard's Bakery when my mom and I visited the islands. Sonny Boy, Wynona, and the rest of the Ohana - you have my deepest condolences and love. Robin Nash Wellhouse (your Auntie Lena's youngest daughter).
