My mother, Gertrude Endicott, was a dear friend and met her in Hawaii Kai. They reconnected once Riccamae was living in Honolulu and my mom was in rehab in her building before we moved my mom to Seattle to be with her daughters. I enjoyed a wonderful dinner with Riccamae when I came to escort Mom back to Seattle and kept in touch with her until her cellphone was unable to reach her by phone. I am so grateful to find that she passed just a few months after my mother did. RIP Riccamae and thank you for your love and support of my mom. Pat Jandl

My dear Aunt Ricci was an extraordinary woman. An Army veteran, dentist, art aficionado, mother and wife. She always was so kind and caring and when she spoke to you she made it clear that she wanted to engage in just that way. A truly remarkable human being who chose happiness in her life. I will miss her greatly. Mark Oswalt
