Vell Mangahis lit a candle in honor of Jasmin.

Times will fly, we will not be together always, but my love for you will always be the same, dear sister. I cannot thank you enough for the love and support you have given me throughout my life! No matter how far apart our lives, I'll always find a way to return to you, sister. No one in my life, no matter what, can ever truly replace you.

You are a treasure in this family, and I'll forever be grateful to you for what you have done for me! You are not just my sister, but more than that. I'm grateful for everything, and I cherish you a lot. You are my sister and my best friend. What a privilege I am blessed to have you in my life. Love you. God might be pleased with me to bless me with a sister like you. Thank you, God.

Stephen Hudson (Jasmin's Father) posted:

My dearest Jasmin, From the moment you entered my life, you filled it with boundless joy and love. Your laughter was a sweet melody that brightened even the darkest days. You were a shining example of kindness and strength, always ready to offer a helping hand or a comforting word. Your courage in facing life's challenges inspired everyone around you. You taught me the true meaning of resilience and unconditional love. As I reflect on our treasured memories, I am filled with gratitude for every precious moment we shared. Though you have departed from this world, your spirit will forever reside in my heart. It pains me deeply that I cannot be there to say my final goodbye in person. The distance that separates us now feels insurmountable, and my heart aches knowing I cannot be present for your funeral. Please know that my thoughts and love are with you always, transcending any physical barriers. Rest in peace, my beloved Jing Jing. You will forever be my pride and joy, and I will carry your memory with me always. With everlasting love and profound sorrow, Dad
